

PP document pouch with CD/DVD pocket

This document pouch made of environmentally friendly polypropylene has a welded pocket on it for storing CDs and DVDs or USB flash drives. That way you can always keep the storage media together with your documents. Conversely, the large pouch can be used to store the documentation of the CD/DVD, e.g. a software manual or the catalogue of a picture CD/DVD. The velcro fastener protects the data and discs against loss, the filing strip enables storage in standard ring binders and files.
