

Desk pad

The writing pad made of high-quality soft PVC film offers an ideal work surface both in the office and in the workshop. Thanks to its three-layer structure and above-average material thickness, it guarantees maximum writing comfort and durability. The underlay is available with various non-slip backing materials, either with felt fleece or foam, which ensures a secure hold on any desk or workbench. Even with large temperature fluctuations, the mat always remains flat and retains its shape. It is waterproof, robust and easy to disinfect, making it particularly easy to clean and durable. This universal desk pad is the perfect addition for anyone who values quality and comfort.
